CROATIA

From the turquoise blue waters, dramatic waterfalls, secluded coves and medieval towns rich in cultural history and life, discover all what Croatia has to offer from the comfort and luxury on-board. A destination with over 1,400 islands to explore, a yacht charter in Croatia is the ideal way to reconnect with Mother Nature, admire the richest stretches of land for natural beauty and experience the stunning wonders of the country.

Take home memories of marvelling the blue waters with a mountainous backdrop, island hopping along the breath-taking coast and exploring some of the most impressive grottoes and lakes in the Mediterranean. Likewise, guests can look forward to enjoying stellar vineyards, fresh seafood and bathe in the culture by strolling through the medieval towns rich with history. For those that also seek a cosmopolitan thrill, glamorous Hvar fulfils any need for retail therapy and offers plenty of fantastic nightlife. Enjoy all of this and more on a luxury charter yacht prepared to take you along this magical destination.

SUMMER CLIMATE IN CROATIA

Croatia has two climates, as you may well expect – one along the coastline, and one for the interior of the country. Coastal Croatia has warm to hot summers, with July and August being the hottest months. For those planning on enjoying Croatia during the low season, swimming should be in order from mid to late May. For those venturing in the interior, average temperatures in the summer would be around the low 20s °C (70°F).

Activities

Town of Korcula – Visit of the historical sites of the town of Korcula, including the birth house of Marco Polo and various museums.

Entire Island of Korcula – Tour of the entire island, small places scattered around Korcula, each with its own history and charm. Visiting wineries and tasting some of the best wines of Adriatic and Croatia is a must for all the wine lovers.

Moreska - It is one of the oldest traditional European dances still performed, and that records exist of it being danced in Lerida in 1156 in a form portraying a Christian and National victory over the Moors and their expulsion from Aragon. Today, Korcula is the only island where it is still danced with real swords in its original War-Dance form and where it has enjoyed a proud and almost unbroken tradition for over four centuries, though the text, music and pattern of the dance have been slightly altered and shortened (the contest used to last for two hours!) over the years.

KORCULA - MLJET

25nm 2 hours

A short voyage to one of the most memorable anchorages in Croatia - Mljet. Being tucked away in your own secluded anchorage to really endure the lustrous forest and ocean in the surroundings.

Being located in this spot is pure tranquility and relaxation at its finest.

If you are feeling active there is a really cool nature walk to the Mljet lakes through the national park.

We will spend the day and night here. The dock for Benji to go for a walk is only 5 minutes away by tender.

Cocktails on the bridge deck, teppanyaki for dinner and a beautiful sunset to be remembered.

MLJET - SUDURAD

Wake up to breakfast on the swimplatform and a morning swim. We will depart after breakfast and make our way along the beautiful Mljet coastline to our new anchorage in Sudurad.

Today we will enjoy exploring the islands before making our way to spectacular Bova, this place boasts its Bali vibe cabana style relaxation on the rocks at it's finest. Where Game of thrones was shot. Dubrovnik is full of activities, bars and restaurants.

Activities

Game of Thrones – on this tour guests will be taken through all the parts of the Old City where some of the most memorable scenes from the ongoing cultural phenomenon were filmed. Dubrovnik was the official setting for King's Landing – the capital of the Seven Kingdoms realm.

Dubrovnik Old Town – The visitors can walk along almost 2 km long city walls, visit Revelin fortress, Roland's Column, Bell Tower, Sponza Palace and Rector's Palace, as well as Franciscan Monastery.

Trsteno arboretum – it has been protected in 1962 as a monument of garden architecture and a collection of decorative trees and bushes, from both Mediterranean and exotic origin.

Lindo, Dubrovnik - Established in Dubrovnik in 1964, the Lindo Folklore Ensemble is a cultural institution under the auspices of the City of Dubrovnik. It was named after the favorite and best-known folk dance of the Dubrovnik region.

Watermills on River Ljuta – a system of watermills and stamp mills built on river Ljuta, Konavle, which consisted of eight watermills for flour, two watermills for oil and three stamp mills.

Sokol fort - the ruins of the fort have been placed under state protection and are maintained in their present condition.

SUDURAD - DUBROVNIK

11nm 1 hour

This morning we will enjoy an early morning swim before heading south to Dubrovnik Old Town area.

A really beautiful cruise along the coastline. This is where Game of thrones was shot. Dubrovnik is full of activities, bars and restaurants.

Today we will do a tour along King's landing, getting the full Game of thrones experience. After the tour there will be a reservation at the delicious restaurant "Forty Four".

After lunch, the tender will collect you from the "Old town" to enjoy some water sports. If you are feeling fearful enough there are some cliff's to jump off on the island.
